

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 17

AVIATION WEEK & SPACE TECHNOLOGY
24 JANUARY 1983

STAT

STAT

Washington Roundup

Hi, Spy!

Former CIA chief Stansfield Turner, asked his assessment of the new Soviet leader. Yuri Andropov—a former KGB boss—said in San Francisco, “I have to admit to you that we don’t have any sort of a fraternal order for chief spies.” He told the Commonwealth Club of California: “I’ve never met the man. I’d be cautious about believing that he’s a closet liberal.”

—Washington Staff